

SUMMER AT THE MUSEUM!
Boredom Busting Bird Crafts!

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE May 18, 2018 - New London - The New London Public Museum invites you to do some boredom busting bird crafts this summer! Stop by the museum every Tuesday starting June 5th for a new craft project. Supplies will be available from 10-4. Craft projects are great for kids five years old and up. While you are at the museum, explore the Curiosity Corner "Birds, Birds, Everywhere!" Don't forget to wander around the exhibits and discover more about the "History of Common Things", Native American history and culture, local history and of course the wonderful animal collection. Admission is free and you don't need to register for the crafts.

The craft theme this year focuses on birds. We will provide all the supplies you need to make fun crafts. You don't need to sign up, just stop by the museum on Tuesdays from 10-4. You'll be able to make your own menagerie of birds by the end of the summer!

Discover something new at the New London Public Museum! Enjoy exhibits about local history, Native American culture, and natural history. Explore the hands-on Curiosity Corner filled with interesting things to do. Want to discover more, our research library is available by appointment. The museum is located at 406 S. Pearl St. and is open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday (year-round) and 10 am- 1 pm Saturday (Labor Day to Memorial Day).

Admission is free. Group tours are available by appointment. For more information like us on Facebook, visit our website www.newlondonwi.org/museum, or contact us at 920-982-8520, museum@newlondonwi.org. Come explore with us!