

Late Winter Activities Planned

at Mosquito Hill Nature Center

February 17, 2021

The snow is so beautiful and the bitterly cold temps have departed.

It would be a shame not to take advantage of winter on it's way out.

JUST ADDED!

Torchlight Snowshoe Walk
Friday, March 5, 6:30 PM

Bring your own snowshoes or rent a pair from us. Enjoy a 30-40 minute walk on level ground lighted by tiki torches. Then, warm up by the bonfire afterwards.

$6/adults, $4/students, seniors and FOMH

Advance reservations and payment are required. We're sorry, but we cannot accept walk-ins for this event.

Build A Native Bee House
Saturday, March 6, 10:00 AM - 12 noon
(NEW TIME. Afternoon class filled.)

$10/person

Make your yard a bit more pollinator-friendly by building and installing this small wooden house that attracts native bees. Registration and payment due Feb. 21

Willow Basketry Workshop
Saturday, March 13, 8:30 AM – 4:00 PM

$40/person

Locally-collected willow will be used to create a rustic rib-style melon basket suitable for decorating your house or collecting produce in the garden. Registration and payment due by March 7.

Call MHNC to register and pay with a credit card. You may also send a check but please call first to insure space availability.
